SUMMER READING

I can't believe we are already in Summer Term. Before you know it the States Library will be announcing it's Summer Reading Challenge. I hope lots of you will take part this year.

WATERSTONES PRIZE

Over Easter the winner of the Waterstone's Children's Book Prize was announced and I am very happy to tell you that it was won by my absolute favourite book from the shortlist:

If you haven't had a look at this book yet, it's on the book display in the library. It really is fantastic!

Also winning in it's category was:

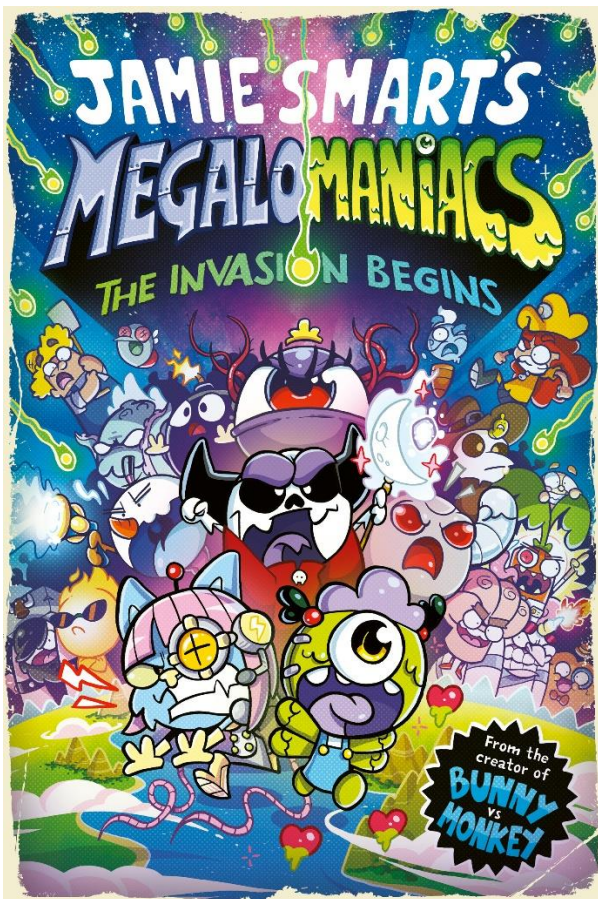

These are on display at the moment but will be available to borrow very soon. All the other shortlisted books from the competition are now in the library. See if you can find them!

Another exciting book has been launched over Easter and will be available to borrow in a couple of weeks – have a look on the display now for a quick preview

I am so excited about this book. It's the latest series from the author of Bunny vs. Monkey and Looshkin. Jamie Smart worked for some of the most iconic comics and studios around, including the Beano and Dandy, Phoenix and Disney. His latest series is about tiny terrors from outerspace.

Lots of you love graphic novels and unfortunately, quite a lot have gone missing from our Library. Please could you check at home to make sure you don't have any of our books hiding under your beds or behind your sofas. We love to share our books and it is a shame when they get lost.

HAPPY READING EVERYONE!
